

Nano Nagle College Scholarship

In the spirit of Presentation foundress, Nano Nagle, the Dubuque Presentation sisters and associates initiate a Nano Nagle College Scholarship to further her legacy of education. Nano Nagle was a young Irish woman who spent her days teaching those who would have otherwise been deprived of an education and her evenings were spent walking through the streets of Cork, Ireland bringing food and medicine, comfort and hope to those in need. Nano Nagle was a WOMAN of SERVICE. Her life reflected her own words, "If I could be of service in any part of the world, I would gladly do all in my power to do so."

Today the Sisters of the Presentation follow in Nano's footsteps by serving in education, pastoral ministry, chaplaincy and advocacy for the disadvantaged and those made poor throughout the United States and Bolivia.

In 2021, the Sisters of the Presentation offer a $1,500 Nano Nagle Scholarship to a deserving senior from St. Edmond High School in Fort Dodge, Iowa, who plans to further his or her education.

The Nano Nagle Scholarship is awarded to a student who models self-giving service helping to improve the lives of others and meets the following criteria:

- Uses his or her God-given talents for the betterment of others
- Exemplifies exceptional service
- Needs financial assistance
- Satisfactorily completes the application and provides two letters of recommendation

Please complete the following application, along with two letters of recommendation (which address your self-giving service) and submit by April 1 (of the current year) to:
