

Responses to Lynn Levo (Presentation on Fri. April 8, 2022 --- A snapshot of the day)
Something I understand more clearly

RISK

Risk is driven by purpose
Risk—desire to be
Risk helps make life interesting
The talk made me think about risk-taking
Risk and risk again
Risk is necessary to have something better
Risk is normal behavior
We take risks together
Risk is key to our future
Risk Promotion
Risk can lead to joy
Safe----Take risks
It is good to dare
Different ideas of risk-taking It is time to risk and use our abundance so
Individually and community, WE act together
It is not about filling the bucket, but about lighting a fire
Vulnerable Truth Telling
The leap of faith is worth the risk
Letting go to risk in trust
Taking risks can lead to something better
Coming out of safe

HOPE

Hope, risk trust I can choose to be hopeful BE a hope provider, being present and available
Helping others be hopeful
Butterflies are emerging. Rejoice.
Hope—becoming more
Hope means that it is not enough and I want more life
Trust is gained only when openness and truth precede it
Trusting self, others, community Trust= vulnerable truth telling

PASSION AND PURPOSE

The answer to “HOW” is “YES” Purpose and Passion
Passion and purpose ignite in risk
Purpose, Passion
Purpose and Passion Matter
Purpose— my internal beyond my external
Purpose is internal and external
Passion and purpose matter
Renewing our PURPOSE we go forward with passion God has assigned a major purpose to me

No right answers

There are no right answers

No right answers, only answers we arrive at together

I choose how I want to be. Regret—both good and bad

I care I don't want to be invisible

We need one another

Be wise, be grateful

To listen differently We must not lose the fragments

Together we all abide in God

Oneness with our humanness

Goal: comfort or faithfulness???

Joy follows gratitude The importance of Trust—kindness to others!

Patient Dreams

Relational—we always have choices. Self-care. It's a benevolent universe!

We are called to live and be joyful, peaceful and happy.

Consciously choose what to neglect

Community commitment

Let go—Let be

We are in this together

Step into the joint Dance

Connect choices, self-care and belief

People are waiting for us to stand up! Be the light—What would Nano do?

The call: help others to be more hopeful

Reach out to others, it will be worth it

Even though we are low on energy, use the energy we have to do something

Use head, heart and gut for decision-making Co-laboring is where we are called to be

Let it be, let it come-co-laboring

When co—laboring—"All Turns Possible"

React (no)—Respond (yes)

Fear and anxiety are different, not the same

Letting go of regrets

Let go to let come

We are all in this together. May God bless all of us.

Love life, live life, gift it to others

Cannot be joyful unless you are grateful, everyday practice gratitude

We're most hopeful when we help others be hopeful
